

CMS Fraud, Waste, and Abuse Guidelines

Fraud involves intentional deception for unauthorized benefit.

Waste includes overutilization or inefficient practices.

Abuse refers to practices inconsistent with sound medical practices.

Common examples include upcoding, duplicate billing, and unnecessary services.